Dr. Keppel to Direct

Third Assistant Secretary of War Not to Return to Columbia University

New York Tribune Washington Bureau WASHINGTON, May 29.—Frederick P. Keppel, Third Assistant Secretary of War since April 19, 1918, will not return to Columbia University when the office he now holds is closed June 30. On July 1 Dr. Keppel will assume the duties of director of foreign opera-tions of the American Red Cross. Dr. Keppel procured an extended leave of absence as dean of Columbia University at the entrance of the United States in the war and became special assistant to Secretary of War Baker on April 20, 1917. A year later he was made Third Assistant Secretary of War by legislation which created the office. The act automatically ter-
